 You might also post this on the vhf listserver. Send e-mail to vhf@w6yx.stanford.edu with the one line subscribe vhf
 to become a subscriber.

 I get 3-6 mails a day from it containing such things as vhf dpxpeditions , scores in contests, who is on and where, what DX popped up last night etc.

 I haven't seen anyone arrange EME skeds there although they are arranging every other sort of sked there.
